

the persistent homology carries no information beyond two correlator values

" $H_1 > 0$ on both sides" is guaranteed by the construction — it cannot fail, so it cannot be evidence