

distances are ordered
by m , so edges enter
in that order

every threshold gives a circulant graph —
nothing else occurs

S^1 below $k/n = 1/3$, H_1 dead at and above it

each step is forced — no step is an approximation or a choice